

ATCP 160.55 – GOATS – DEPARTMENT 5
Judging: Friday 9:00 a.m. – Barn 10

Lead Superintendent: Ron Gordee

Goat Rules and Instructions

- All junior goat exhibitors must be certified in the Youth for Quality Care for Animals (YQCA) and submit their certification number through Fair Entry by May 26th at 4:30 pm to exhibit goats at the Green County Fair.
- Exhibitors and their families are responsible for reading the Junior Fair General Rules & Instructions, in addition to Livestock Auction Rules, if applicable.
- All goats must be brought to the fair and checked in between 9am-Noon on Tuesday of the fair. Market Goats will be weighed as they are checked in off the trailer. There will be no repeat weights. Goats cannot be unloaded or penned without first being checked in by a Fair Veterinarian.
- Exhibitors and/or other family/club/chapter members must be present when unloading, to insure animals are promptly unloaded and properly identified (by exhibitor & lot) and penned.
- Age of animal for determining the appropriate class shall be computed from the opening day of fair, unless otherwise specified.
- Intact males may not be entered in a class nor be present on the Fairgrounds.
- Goats with full natural horns may not be entered unless full natural horns are a standard for a specific breed.
- All breeding and market goats exhibited at the Green County Fair must be identified in one of two ways: a legible tattoo with accompanying registration papers from a recognized breed association, a USDA Scrapie Flock Tag or an

- USDA RFID Tag placed in their ear PRIOR to entering the fairgrounds.
- All goats must be fitted with a restraint collar while on the fairgrounds and on a leash when outside of Fair pen except when in the show ring.
 - Dress during show according to breed type standards, i.e. whites for dairy, blue jeans and western shirts for meat classes is STRONGLY encouraged.
 - Green County Junior Fair exhibitors are required to fit their own animals for the Junior Show, once they are on the fairgrounds. They may be assisted by immediate family members (parents, step-parent, legal guardians, sibling) or another Green County Junior Fair exhibitor. Failure to abide by this rule will make the animal ineligible for the Junior Show.
 - Vehicles are not allowed to park around the dairy and livestock building between 8 am and 8pm from Wednesday through Saturday and from 8 am to 6pm on Sunday of the fair. Exhibitors will be able to bring in feed and supplies to the barns between 8pm and 8 am only.
