Poultry Rules and Instructions

1. Exhibitors and their families are responsible for reading the Junior Fair General Rules & Instructions, in addition to Livestock Auction Rules, if applicable.
2. Fair Association is not responsible for birds lost, stolen or that die.
3. Each exhibitor allowed 1 entry per lot, total of not more than 7 lots. (Showmanship does not count toward your Lot total)
4. All cockerels/pullets entered in Class A must have been hatched after January 1st of the exhibit year.
5. It is recommended that exhibitors use some form of identification for birds. Examples include leg band, wing band, etc.
6. Birds must originate from a certified flock or be individually tested, in accordance with WI Department of Ag, Trade and Consumer Protection requirements. Testing must be performed by a certified pullorum tester authorized by DATCP.
7. Each exhibitor MUST provide a copy of the Flock Status certificate or Individual Testing paperwork at check-in on Tuesday of the fair. The Fair Office will NOT print or copy this paperwork. Birds without this information will be sent home.
8. All poultry must be checked in between 9:00 a.m. to Noon on Tuesday of the fair, before being put in a pen.
9. Exhibitors must provide a water container that CANNOT be tipped over for each of their pens.
10. Exhibitors must be present during all judging.
11. Each exhibitor must daily take care of his/her own exhibit(s). This includes morning and evening chores, and throughout the day, as needed. Birds not taken care of daily may be sent home and the member will forfeit the premium money on the exhibit(s) and eligibility to exhibit in this department next year.
12. Saw dust and shavings must be discarded in the pit on the other side of the swine barn, NOT in the dumpster.
13. All exhibitors are required to clean their cages prior to leaving the fairgrounds on Sunday evening, or the exhibitor will forfeit the premium money on the exhibits and eligibility to exhibit in this department next year.
14. Vehicles are not allowed to park around the dairy and livestock building between 8am and 8pm from Wednesday through Saturday and from 8 am to 6pm on Sunday of the fair. Exhibitors will be able to bring in feed and supplies to the barns between 8pm and 8am only.
