Dog Rules and Instructions

- A. Green County 4-H Dog Project rules will apply.
- B. Youth interested in participating in any of the Junior Fair Dog Shows should be aware of the following eligibility requirements:
 - a. Submit a Dog Project Health Form, (vaccinations and negative fecal and external parasites tests)
 - For Dog Agility, due to Extension office by April 10.
 - For Dog Obedience/Showmanship, due to the Extension office by July 1st.
 - b. Submit a Dog Obedience Form, as documentation that youth participant and dog have completed together an obedience training program (minimum of 6 sessions) during the current or previous years (past 4-H obedience training will count, but puppy socializing classes will not count). Obedience training programs can be taught by a club's 4-H Dog Leader or a professional trainer.
 - For Dog Agility, due to the Extension office four days prior to first agility practice you are attending.
 - For Dog Obedience/Showmanship, due to the Extension office by July 1st.
 - c. Youth must be able to handle and walk dog obediently on leash without parental or adult assistance. Please note that superintendents and judges reserve the right to dismiss a dog

- d. from the show if they feel the exhibitor is not able to handle the dog or poses a danger.
- e. A dog that has attained a qualifying score at a county fair dog show must advance to the next higher class the following year. If you don't get a qualifying score, you do not have to advance. If you are a returning participant and uncertain of whether or not you received a qualifying score last year, please contact the Extension Green County Office at 608-328-9440.
- f. No dog may be shown by more than one handler or in more than one obedience class.
- g. Agility participants must have participated in at least one (1) 4-H Dog Agility practice.
- h. Each dog must be equipped with a slip or buckle collar with no attachments (no name tags, rabies tags or license, etc.) and a 6-foot leather or nylon leash. Pinch collars, Halti's (head collar), chain leashes, electric training collars, and harnesses will not be allowed.

- C. Entering your dog in the correct lot is critical! Please see Junior Fair General Rule #28. Animals incorrectly entered will not receive fair premium and will not be eligible for awards.

D. Note: Obedience & Showmanship contests will only be held if superintendent can be identified. Interested volunteers should contact the Extension Green County Office at 608-328-9440.
