Dairy Rules and Instructions

1. Read the General Fair Rules & Instructions document!
2. Read the Animal Health Rules & Regulations document!
3. Read the Dairy Youth Auction Recognition document!!!
4. All junior dairy exhibitors must be certified in the Youth for the Quality Care of Animals (YQCA) and submit their certification number through FairEntry to exhibit dairy at the Green County Fair.
5. Exhibitors will be allowed to show two managerial registered animals in the Dairy Division.
6. All registered dairy cattle shown as ownership in the junior calf Lot through the senior yearling Lot must have been registered under the exhibitor's name by May 15th of the exhibit year.
7. All registered dairy cattle 2 years and older must have been registered under the exhibitor's name by January 1st of exhibit year or (2) purchased and transferred by January 1st of the exhibit year and recorded in the exhibitor's name on the bill of sale or registration certificate. (The exhibitor's name MUST appear on the registration certificate.)
8. As of January 1st of exhibit year, dairy exhibitors may show animal ratios as follows:
  - Grades 3-6 – up to two (2) animals
  - Grades 7-9 – up to three (3) animals
  - Grades 10 & up – up to four (4) animals
9. The number of entries cannot exceed the maximum limit for a department. Entries will be taken in the order they are listed on the fair entry form. Any entries over the maximum will NOT be allowed to exhibit at the fair.
10. Red and White Holsteins are to be exhibited in the Holstein Lots only.
11. A registration number or breed tattoo MUST be submitted for all registered animals on the fair entry form. All Grade animals MUST have the animal's metal ear tag or farm herd tag number entered on the fair entry form. Failure to enter these numbers will make animals ineligible for the show.
12. Trophies will be presented to the highest placing beginner exhibitor in the Holstein Spring Lot – Registered and Grade.
13. CLUB HERDS: Each club, chapter or troop may exhibit one club herd, either a Senior or Junior herd, which will consist of 5 animals of one breed, grade or purebred. Each club herd must have at least 3 exhibitors. Senior herd must consist of a minimum of 2 cows. Junior herd must consist of non-milking animals.
14. Registered dairy animals will not be allowed to compete for ribbons in the open class dairy show. However, the Supreme Grand and Supreme Reserve Champions of the Junior shows are invited to show for Overall Supreme Champion along with the Supreme Grand and Supreme Reserve Champions of the open show. Overall Supreme and Reserve Champion will receive a trophy.

16. Junior members showing open class animals may house them in the barn with junior fair animals BUT the fitting rule described in the General Rules Fair Week Policies # 41 & 42, also apply to the open class entries. (The number of open class animals to be housed in the junior fair barns should be noted when livestock numbers are turned in to Superintendent.)
17. All dairy animals are required to go through the Veterinary Check-in area IMMEDIATELY after unloading and PRIOR to tying animals in any of the barns. Exhibitors need to have their registration paper available when unloading, and also need to have other family; 4-H and/or FFA members present to assist in taking their cattle to the barns after checking them in. Animals will be given a tail band designating that they have been checked in. These bands must be left on until they are removed by the superintendents after the check-in is complete.
18. Dairy Exhibitors are allowed one Alternate entry.
19. Registered Animals are not allowed to show in the Grade Classes. Exhibitors and Owners, and their immediate families found in violation of this rule will forfeit all awards and be permanently banned from any exhibiting at the Green County Fair. Immediate family includes children and step-children of both the exhibitor and owner.
