Rules and Instructions

1. Read the General Fair Rules & Instructions document!
2. Read the Animal Health Rules & Regulations document!
3. All junior goat exhibitors must be certified in the Youth for Quality Care for Animals (YQCA) and submit their certification number through FairEntry to exhibit goats at the Green County Fair.
4. Market Goats will be weighed in the Mayer Transport Show Barn as they are checked in and unloaded from the trailer. There will be no repeat weights. Goats cannot be unloaded or penned without first being checked in by a Fair Veterinarian.
5. Exhibitors and/or other family/club/chapter members must be present when unloading, to ensure animals are promptly unloaded and properly identified (by exhibitor & lot) and penned.
6. Age of the animal for determining the appropriate class shall be computed from the opening day of the fair, unless otherwise specified.
7. Intact males may not be entered in a class nor be present on the Fairgrounds.
8. Goats with full natural horns may not be entered unless full natural horns are a standard for a specific breed.
9. All breeding and market goats exhibited at the Green County Fair must be identified in one of three ways: a legible tattoo with accompanying registration papers from a recognized breed association, a USDA Scrapie Flock Tag or an USDA RFID Tag placed in their ear PRIOR to entering the fairgrounds. Note: market wethers in lot 30 must be identified with an RFID tag from the Extension Office.
10. All dairy goats must be fitted with a restraint collar while on the fairgrounds and on a leash when outside of the Fair pen except when in the show ring. All meat goats are strongly encouraged to be fitted with a restraint collar while in their pen and is mandatory when outside of the Fair pen except when in the show ring.
11. Dress during show according to breed type standards, i.e. whites for dairy, blue jeans and western shirts for meat classes is STRONGLY encouraged.
